

Mani. Malia on a tree on grass by Tagore 1849

of the Dudley diamond in the coronet.

says:

The "Dudley diamond" weighing about 46 carats is another important stone, come from the Cape. It is triangular in shape, very brilliant, perfectly free from color and very difficult distinct from an old European stone. It was sold by Messrs Hunt & Roskill to the present Earl of Dudley.
